CASE NO. 2:22-cr-00058 DAD

STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~
PROTECTIVE ORDER BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND
DEFENDANT BRUCE REGARDING DISCOVERY

17
18 I. STIPULATION

19 1. Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, Alexis Klein,
20 and defendant Keino Bruce, by and through his counsel of record, Kyle Knapp and Jeffery Greco,
21 hereby stipulate, agree, and jointly request that the Court enter a Protective Order in this case
22 restricting the use and dissemination of certain materials containing personal identifying information
23 (“PII”) of real persons and other confidential information of victims, witnesses, and third parties.

24 2. As part of its investigation in this case, the government is in possession of materials
25 relating to the charges against the defendant, including voluminous bank records, business records,
26 account information, and other evidence that contains PII and other confidential information for real
27 persons, including, among other things, personal names, Social Security numbers, Driver’s License
28 numbers, and dates of birth. These real persons include victims, witnesses, and/or third parties to

1 this case. The government seeks to provide these materials to counsel for the defendant.

2 3. The purpose of the proposed Protective Order is to prevent the unauthorized
3 dissemination, distribution, or use of materials containing the PII and confidential personal
4 information of others. If this information is disclosed without protective measures, or to defendant
5 without limitation, it will risk the privacy and security of the people to whom the information relates.
6 The information could itself be used to further criminal activity if improperly disclosed or used. The 7 United States has ongoing statutory and ethical obligations to protect victims.

8 4. Due to the nature of this case, including the extensive financial records involved, PII
9 makes up a significant part of the discovery materials, and this information in many instances has 10 evidentiary value itself. The large quantity of privacy-protected information would be difficult or 11 time-consuming to redact. Further, if the government were to attempt to redact all this information, 12 the defense would receive a set of discovery that would be confusing, difficult to understand, and 13 could inhibit prompt and just resolution of the case.

14 5. Accordingly, the government and defendant Bruce (collectively the “parties”) jointly 15 request a Protective Order that will permit the government to produce discovery that is unredacted,
16 but preserves the privacy and security of victims, witness, and third parties. The parties agree that 17 the following conditions, if ordered by the Court in the proposed Protective Order, will serve the 18 government’s interest in maintaining the privacy and security of victims and third parties, while 19 permitting the Defense Team (as defined below in subsection II.B.) to understand the United States’
20 evidence against the defendant(s).

21 6. This Court may enter protective orders pursuant to Rule 16(d) of the Federal Rules of 22 Criminal Procedure, Local Rule 141.1, and its general supervisory authority.

23 II. PROPOSED PROTECTIVE ORDER

24 A. Protected Materials

25 7. This Order pertains to all discovery provided or made available to defense counsel in 26 this case (hereafter, collectively “Protected Materials”).

27 8. For purposes of this Protective Order, the term “Personal Identifying Information”
28 (“PII”) includes any name, social security number, date of birth, State or government issued driver’s

1 license or identification number, alien registration number, government passport number, employer
2 or taxpayer identification number, fingerprint, unique electronic identification number, address or 3 routing code, license plate number, address, vehicle identification number, FBI and CII number and 4 any other similar identifier, and information within the definition of an “access device” under 18
5 U.S.C. § 1029(e)(1).

6 9. To the extent that notes are made that memorialize, in whole or in part, the PII in any 7 Protected Materials, or to the extent that copies are made for authorized use by members of the 8 Defense Team, such notes, copies, or reproductions become Protected Materials, subject to the 9 Protective Order and must be handled in accordance with the terms of the Protective Order.

10 B. Defense Team

11 10. For purposes of this Order, the term “Defense Counsel” refers to a defendant’s 12 counsel of record.

13 11. For purposes of this Order, the term “Defense Team” refers to (1) a defendant’s 14 counsel of record, (2) other attorneys at that defense counsel’s law firm or defense organization who 15 may be consulted regarding case strategy in the above-captioned matter, (3) defense investigators
16 who are assisting a defense counsel with this case, (4) retained experts or potential experts, and (5) 17 paralegals, legal assistants, and other support staff to a defendant’s counsel of record providing 18 assistance on this case. The term “Defense Team” does not include any defendant, any defendants’
19 family, or other associates of any defendant.

20 12. Defense Counsel must provide a copy of this Order to all members of the Defense
21 Team, prior to providing any Protected Materials to the members of the Defense Team. As to any 22 members of the defense team that are not employed in the same office as defense counsel, such as 23 retained or potential experts, Defense Counsel must obtain written acknowledgement from those 24 members of the Defense Team that they are bound by the terms and conditions of this Protective
25 Order. The written acknowledgement must be maintained by defense counsel until final disposition 26 of the case, including exhaustion of direct and collateral appellate proceedings, but need not be 27 disclosed or produced to the United States unless ordered by the Court.

28 ///

C. Disclosure of Protected Materials

13. No person or party shall use any Protected Materials or information derived from Protected Materials produced in this action for any purpose other than use in the above-captioned case. All Protected Materials shall be used solely for the purpose of conducting and preparing for pre-trial, post-trial, and appellate proceedings (both direct and collateral) in this criminal action and for no other purposes whatsoever. All Protected Materials shall not be used for the economic or other benefit of the defendant or any third party. Protected Materials may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order.

14. Defendant may review Protected Materials in this case only in the presence of a member of the Defense Team, and Defense Counsel shall ensure that defendant are never left alone with any Protected Information. Defendant may not copy, keep, maintain, or otherwise possess any of such Protected Materials at any time. Defendant must return any Protected Materials to the Defense Team at the conclusion of any meeting at which defendant review the Protected Materials. Defendant may not take any Protected Materials out of the room in which they are meeting with the Defense Team. Defendant may not write down or memorialize any PII contained in the Protected Materials. At the conclusion of any meeting with defendant, the member(s) of the Defense Team present shall take with him or her all Protected Materials. At no time, under any circumstances, will any Protected Materials be left in the possession, custody, or control of the defendant.

15. The Defense Team may review Protected Materials with a witness or potential witness in this case, including the defendant, subject to the requirement above that a member of the Defense Team must be present if Protected Materials are being shown to the defendant. Before being shown any portion of the Protected Materials, however, any witness or potential witness, including the defendant, must be informed of the existence of the Protective Order and given a copy of the Protective Order. No witness or potential witness may retain Protected Materials, or any copy thereof, after his or her review of those materials with the Defense Team is complete.

16. This Order does not limit employees of the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of California from disclosing the Protected Materials to members of the United States Attorney's Office, law enforcement agencies, the Court, and defense.

1           17. Defense Counsel shall advise the United States with reasonable notice of any
2 subpoenas, document requests, or claims for access to the Protected Materials by third parties if
3 Defense Counsel is considering disseminating any of the Protected Materials to a third party, so that
4 the United States may take action to respond to such demands as it may deem appropriate.

5           D. Ensuring Security of Protected Materials

6           18. The Defense Team shall maintain the Protected Materials safely and securely, and 7 shall exercise reasonable care in ensuring the security and confidentiality of the Protected Materials
8 by storing the Protected Materials in a secure place, such as a locked office, or otherwise secure 9 facility where visitors are not left unescorted.

10          19. A copy of the Protective Order must be stored with the discovery, in paper form and 11 electronically.

12          20. To the extent that Protected Materials, or any copies or reproductions thereof, are 13 stored electronically, the Protected Materials will be stored on a password-protected or encrypted
14 storage medium, including a password-protected computer, or device. Encryption keys must be 15 stored securely and not written on the storage media that they unlock.

16          21. If a member of the Defense Team makes, or causes to be made, any further copies of 17 any of the Protected Materials, Defense Counsel will ensure that the following notation is written,
18 stamped or inscribed on whatever folder, container, or media contains the copies: "PROTECTED
19 MATERIALS-SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER." For example, if Defense Counsel makes a 20 copy of a disc or physical file containing Protected Materials, the duplicate disc or file must be 21 encrypted and marked with the above notation.

22           E. Filings

23          22. In the event that a party needs to file Protected Materials containing PII, or materials
24 otherwise identified as containing confidential information of victims, witnesses, or third parties
25 with the Court, or disclose PII in court filings, the filing should be made under seal as provided for 26 by the local rules. If the Court rejects the request to file such information under seal, the party 27 seeking to file such information shall provide advance written notice to the other party to afford such 28 party an opportunity to object or otherwise respond to such intention. If the other party does not

1 object to the proposed filing, the party seeking to file such information shall redact the PII or
2 confidential materials and make all reasonable attempts to limit the divulging of PII or confidential
3 materials.

4 F. Conclusion of Prosecution

5 23. The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this prosecution.
6 All Protected Materials subject to the Protective Order maintained in the Defense Team's files shall 7 remain subject to the Protective Order unless and until such Order is modified by the Court.

8 24. Upon final disposition of the case, including exhaustion of direct and collateral
9 appellate proceedings, Defense Counsel shall return the Protected Materials to the government, or 10 certify in writing that the Protected Materials have been destroyed. If any Protected Materials are 11 used as defense exhibits, they shall be maintained with government exhibits so long as those are 12 required to be maintained.

13 G. Termination or Substitution of Counsel

14 25. In the event that there is a substitution of counsel prior to final disposition of the case,
15 new counsel of record must join this Protective Order before any Protected Materials may be 16 transferred from the undersigned defense counsel to the new defense counsel. New defense counsel
17 then will become Defense Counsel for purposes of this Protective Order, and become Defense
18 Team's custodian of materials, and shall then become responsible, upon the conclusion of appellate 19 and post-conviction proceedings, for complying with the provisions set forth in subsection F, above.
20 All members of the Defense Team, whether current or past counsel, are at all times subject to the 21 Protective Order and are not relieved by termination of representation or conclusion of the 22 prosecution.

23 H. Modification of Order

24 26. Nothing in this Order shall prevent any party from seeking modification to the Order
25 or from objecting to discovery it otherwise believes to be improper. Nothing in this Order shall 26 prevent any party from seeking a more restrictive protective order with regard to particular discovery
27 items.

28 ///

I. Violation of Order

27. Any person who willfully violates this Order may be held in contempt of court and maybe subject to monetary of other sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Court. This provision does not expand or narrow the Court's contempt powers.

J. Application of Laws

28. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to affect or comment on the admissibility or discoverability of the Protected Materials.

29. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to affect the application or and the parties' compliance with the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Local Rules, and applicable statutes.
